

Leave Normal Behind.

Tuesday
March 27

5:30 pm
368
Manoogian

ELIJAH WOOD

Everything is Illuminated

A young Jewish American flies to the Ukraine in search of a woman who helped his grandfather escape Europe during World War II; he has a photograph and the name of a village. He hires the Odessa Heritage Tours, made up of a gruff old man and his English-speaking grandson. The three, plus grandfather's deranged dog, travel in an old car from Odessa into Ukraine's heart

Presented by: Foreign Film Nites @ the FLAC

Introduced by Prof. Aaron Retish, Dept. of History