

Foreign Language Technology Center Presents Foreign Film Nights:

ཀེཀེལིལི

KEKEXILI

"MOUNTAIN PATROL"

Introduced by John Brender from the Confucius Institute

The Tibetan Mountain Patrol, a self-sponsored outcast regimen established to eliminate illegal slaughtering of endangered Tibetan Antelopes by impoverished local and out-of-province peasants, intimately engages with a half-Tibetan journalist from Beijing in a desolate depiction of human nature in the outskirts of Kekexili during a last resort campaign of portent and trial.

TUESDAY APRIL 20. 5:30 P.M.
AT 368 MANOOGIAN

90 min

Language: Mandarin | Tibetan

Subtitles: English

Made in China in 2004

Directed by: Chuan Lu

