

FOREIGN LANGUAGE TECHNOLOGY CENTER PRESENTS FOREIGN FILM NITES!

A STEPHEN CHOW FILM

KUNG FU 功夫 HUSTLE

INTRODUCED BY JOHN BRENDER CONFUCIUS INSTITUTE

95 MINUTES
CANTONESE AND MANDARIN
WITH ENGLISH SUBTITLES
MADE IN CHINA IN 2004

TUESDAY APRIL 6, 2010
368 MANOOGIAN 5:30PM

It is 1940's China, and gangs rule the city. The most notorious of them all is the Axe Gang, led by the insane Brother Sum. A slum called Pig Sty Alley is the only area safe from the Axes because the people there are so poor. Soon, wannabe gangster Sing and his pal Bone attempt to extort money out of a barber and fail, drawing the real Axe Gang to the Pig Sty. However, it turns out that there are several kung fu masters living in the slum, and the two sides become fast enemies. As the plot thickens, Sing must decide--does he follow his dreams and become a gangster, or follow his destiny and save the day?