

Foreign Film Nites @ the FLTC

Showing:

O Brother, Where Art Thou?

A Comedy and an Adventure film based on Homer's Epic Poem, The Odyssey.

"In this update of Homer's "The Odyssey," set in the 1930's Depression-era deep South, three convicts--the garrulous silver-tongued Everett, the sweet and simple Delmar and the maladjusted Pete--escape from a chain gang and embark on the adventure of a lifetime. They set out to pursue their freedom and the promise of sharing in the division of a fortune in buried treasure". (from <http://movies.yahoo.com>)

Thu, 2nd February, 2006

5.30 PM

at

328 Manoogian

This film will be introduced by Dr. Jennifer Sheridan Moss, Dept. of Classics, Greek and Latin

Hosted by the Foreign Language Technology Center, and The Department of Classics, Greek & Latin

Questions: Call the Foreign Language Technology Center (FLTC), 313 577 3022