

Foreign Film Nites @ the FLTC

Showing:

“Los Olvidados”

A great Spanish social drama!

“The preface to "Los Olvidados" warns the viewers that the scenes that they are about to see are disturbing yet they are true. We'll, this movie was made in 1952 so we figure there probably isn't much in it that'll disturb us. However, I was bothered plenty by "Los Olvidados". It is the story of a gang of street kids in Mexico City. They weren't up to too much mischief until an older kid named Jaibo joins them after sneaking out of some sort of juvenile prison. He is bad and things get worse after he joins the others.”

Tue, 31st Jan 2006

5.30 PM

at

368 Manoogian

This film will be introduced by Luisa Quintero,
Department of Romance Languages.

Hosted by the Foreign Language Technology Center, and
The Department of Romance Languages

Questions: Call the Foreign Language Technology Center (FLTC), 313 577 3022