

WSU Foreign Language Technology Center Presents Foreign Film Nites

The Syrian Bride

a film by Eran Riklis

Wednesday, March 31st at 4:00 PM in Manoogian 368

Presented by
Annie Higgins (CMLLC)

Released in Israel, 2004, 97 min.

Arabic with English Subtitles

The Syrian Bride is set in the windy hills along the Israeli and Syrian border. Leaving her village in the Golan Heights, Mona will cross the border to marry the arranged Syrian fiancée she has never met, as is dictated by Druze custom. Even with the pending celebrations, this may be the saddest day in Mona's life, as once she crosses through the other side, she may never see her family again.