

Visually stunning work by director Wong Kar-Wai follows the adventures of a womanizing writer working on a science fiction novel about a future year in which all memories are suspended. Interweaving his life and his novel, this film presents a stunning contrast between period piece noir and chic futuristic styles. 2046 is a meditation on memory, eroticism, love, loss, and longing.

The Foreign Language Technology Center Presents Foreign Film Nites!

2046

Wednesday Oct. 8 -5:30 PM
358 Manoogian Hall

Introduction by
Kirsten Thompson Dept. of English

129 min Chinese with English Subtitles
Released in China in 2004