FOREIGN LANGUAGE TECHNOLOGY CENTER PRESENTS FOREIGN FILM NITES

BLIND CHANCE

Tuesday, November 17, 2009 @ 5:00PM
368 Manoogian Hall

INTRODUCED BY
Kevin Deegan-Krause
Dept. of Political Science

It is 1981 and Poland is in political turmoil. After the death of his father, Witek Dlugosz decides to take a year off of medical school to travel to Warsaw. On the way to his train, blind chance branches Witek’s life into three very different possibilities based on what happens at the train station.

RELEASED IN POLAND IN 1987

DIRECTED BY Krzysztof Kieslowski

122 Minutes Polish with English Subtitles