The Cold Summer of 1953

Come and join the FLTC for another Foreign Film Nite:

5:30 pm
Feb. 27th
Manoogian
Rm. 328

In March 1953, Joseph Stalin died of a stroke, but the U.S.S.R continued on.

A group of political prisoners attempts to escape the iron fist of the deceased dictator Joseph Stalin in this grim drama set in the back woods of treacherous Soviet Russia.

Directed By: Alexandr Proshkin
Russian with English subtitles

Introduction By: Laura Kline, Dept. of CMLLC