In Hong Kong, 1962, the chief editor of a local newspaper, Chau, and his wife move into new accommodations where he meets Li-chun who lives next door and moved in the same day. Coincidentally they are both moving in without the help of their spouses. As both of their spouses are always out for work, they spend and more time together. One day they both realize that their spouses are having an affair, and the discovery shocks both of them.

Directed by Kar Wai Wong

98 min. Cantonese with English Subtitles

Monday, February 23
5:30 PM
@ 368 Manoogian

Release Date:
26 February 2001 (USA)

Introduction by:
Kirsten Thompson
Department of English