Two documentaries about the events that started May 18, 1980 when citizens rose up against Chun Doo-hwan's military dictatorship and took control of the city. In the course of the uprising, citizens took up arms to defend themselves, but were ultimately crushed by the South Korean army.

"Documentary 5.18" is in English
"Memento Memory" is in Korean with English subtitles

Released in 1990 in Korea
Created by the May 18 Memorial Foundation