

Foreign Language Technology Center Presents Foreign Film Nites!

THE CUCKOO

September, 1944. WWII. By a fluke of fate, a Finnish sniper-kamikadze and a captain of the Soviet Army end up at the home of a Lapp woman. This meeting of vastly different cultures, punctuated by mistrust due to politics and war, results in a series of conflicts and humorous episodes that ultimately reveals universal truths about the human condition.

Tuesday, December 9, 2008 at 5:30 pm

368 Manoogian Hall

Introduction by Laura Kline

105 min Russian, Finnish, German, and Saami, with English subtitles.

Released in Russia in 2002

Directed by Aleksandr Rogozhkin

