

Foreign Language Technology Center Presents Foreign Film Nites!

The Promised Land

Thursday, November 6, 2008 at 5:30 PM
368 Manogian Hall

At the turn of the century, Lodz, Poland was a quick-paced manufacturing center for textiles, replete with cutthroat industrialists and unsafe working conditions.

Director Andrzej Wajda follows three young friends, a Pole, a Jew and a German who pool their money together to build a factory. The film follows their ruthless pursuit of fortune.

Introduction by Alina Klin
Dept. of CMLLC

179 min Polish with English Subtitles

Released in Poland in 1975