Eligibility: You must meet both of the criteria below in order to be eligible for a Slavic Scholarship. Otherwise your application will not be considered.

1) You must have declared a Slavic major, or a Polish or a Russian minor or applied for a qualifying study abroad program before you submit this form; AND

2) You must take at least one Polish, Ukrainian, Russian or Slavic course in the Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures in Fall 2015.

The committee will look especially favorably on the applications of students who have participated in and/or helped out with the Slavic Club or departmental activities.

Application Deadline: March 23, 2015, 5:00 pm
Please submit your application in hard copy directly to Dr. Laura Kline or Dr. Alina Klin. You can also leave your application for us at the main office in Mano 487.

Required Materials:
- Transcript (it doesn’t have to be an official copy).
- Application Form.

Optional Additional Submission: You may submit a typed statement indicating that you are in need of financial support in order to continue work on your Slavic major or Polish or Russian minor or for study abroad. Students with special financial circumstances will be given additional consideration for the scholarship, although scholarship awards will not be made on the basis of financial need alone; they will be made primarily on the basis of academic performance.
Slavic Scholarship Application
For the 2015-2016 Academic Year

1. Name: ________________________________
2. Address: ________________________________

3. Tel: ________________________________
4. E-mail: ________________________________
5. Student ID: ________________________________

6. Majors/Minors
   a. Slavic Majors: circle your concentration: Polish    Russian
   b. Polish and Russian Minors: circle one: Polish    Russian
   c. Others: indicate your major: ________________________________

7. When do you expect to graduate? ________________________________

8. List the classes you need to take to complete your Slavic major or Polish or Russian minor: ________________________________

   ________________________________
   ________________________________
   ________________________________

8. Indicate the Polish, Ukrainian, Russian or Slavic course(s) you will take in Fall 2015 in the WSU Department of Modern and Classical Languages, Literatures and Cultures: ________________________________

   ________________________________
   ________________________________
   ________________________________

---

Source of Slavic Scholarship Funding

Slavic Scholarships are made possible by the generous support of individuals and Slavic Klub fundraisers. This year the Slavic Program would like to cordially thank all those who contributed, especially the WSU faculty, the WSU Slavic Klub and Polish Village Café.

Slavic Scholarships are made possible by the generous support of individuals and Slavic Klub fundraisers. This year the Slavic Program would like to cordially thank all those who contributed, especially the WSU faculty, the WSU Slavic Klub and Polish Village Café.
10. Briefly tell us about your academic interests and plans for the future:

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

I verify that the information provided in this application is true.

__________________________________________  ___________________________
Signature                                           Date