The courses will be taught by the following Wayne State University faculty members: Dr. Andrea diTommaso and Dr. Raffaele De Benedictis, College of Liberal Arts, Department of Romance Languages and Literatures.

PROGRAM DATES:

June 28 - August 6, 2004

Cost:

- Tuition & Fees: Students will pay current published tuition and fees to WSU for 8 credit hours at their appropriate level through the normal tuition payment process. Students with questions regarding their tuition and fee assessment rate may contact Registration and Scheduling at 313-577-3541.
- Room & Board (includes 3 meals per day): $1330.00
- Transportation: $140.00
- Airfare: $800.00-$1000.00 – Students will pay the travel agent/airline directly for the actual cost of the airfare. The actual cost and payment schedule will be furnished by the provider.

APPLICATION PROCESS:

You can apply for this program at the WSU Study Abroad and Global Programs Office, 5155 Gullen Mall, 1600 David Adamany Undergraduate Library, Detroit, MI 48202. Selection of applicants is done on a rolling admission basis – that is, applications are accepted and students are evaluated and considered for acceptance throughout the academic year. Should your require additional assistance, please contact the Study Abroad and Global Programs Office at 313-577-3207.

You are strongly encouraged to apply early since many programs will be filled to their capacity prior to the deadline. Applying early allows you to take advantage of group flight discounts.

At the time of application, you must attach the program deposit fee in the amount of $200.00. The deposit is applied to your program fee. The deposit will be returned to you if upon review of your application, you are not accepted to the program or you notify the Study Abroad and Global Programs Office in writing of your desire to withdraw from the program by March 31, 2004.

APPLICATION DEADLINE:

March 31, 2004

ELIGIBILITY AND ACCEPTANCE:

You must be in good academic standing, with a GPA of at least 2.00, at the time of application. Meeting this minimum GPA does not, however, guarantee acceptance as you must be judged academically prepared by appropriate program faculty members. Acceptance to this program is based on faculty review of your transcript and application.

Upon acceptance, you will receive an official acceptance letter including a Decision Form and Statement of Responsibility. By signing and returning these forms you will be notifying the Study Abroad and Global Programs Office that you either wish to participate in or withdraw from the program. These forms must be returned within two weeks of the date of your acceptance letter or it will be assumed that you wish to withdraw your application.

In order to apply to the program, the following are required:

- The Program Application
- Student Health/Emergency Treatment Authorization
- A check or money order in the amount of $200.00 for the Program Deposit (Made payable to Wayne State University). Should you elect to pay the Program Deposit via Credit Card please complete the information on the Credit Card Payment Authorization Form and attach to the application.
- Transcript (student copy from pipeline is acceptable)
- Non-matriculant application (Complete only if you are not a WSU student)
